UPPER 3RD: POLICE EVIDENCE

SLATE: APRIL 21, 2014 NEARLY THREE YEARS SINCE LAUREN'S MURDER UPPER 3RD: POLICE EVIDENCE	Reporter: Recent evidence uncovered by GVI computer forensic investigators may have compelled McDaniel to accept a plea deal. Cook says investigators found pictures of Giddings on the camera McDaniel used to spy on her. District Attorney David Cook laid out the deal offered by prosecutors, a written confession detailing what McDaniel did, and the waiver of his rights to appeal.
UPPER 3RD: TRUE CRIME GARAGE PODCAST NICK AND THE CAPTAIN HOSTS UPPER 3RD: LAUREN'S APARTMENT POLICE EVIDENCE POLICE EVIDENCE LAUREN'S APARTMENT POLICE EVIDENCE POLICE EVIDENCE	Nick: Stephen's story was this. He said that at 4:30 AM on Sunday, June 26th, he broke into her apartment dressed all in black. He used the master key to get into the apartment. He stood there watching her sleep before he startled her away. He leaped across the bed, onto her and grabbed her around the throat. They struggled and tumbled out of the bed to the floor. During the struggle, Lauren managed to rip the mask off of McDaniel's face. He said she recoiled in horror when she recognized him. She pleaded, "Stephen, please stop." McDaniel clenched his hands around her throat for 15 minutes until she stopped moving and then dragged her into the bathroom and placed her in the bathtub. He then returned to his apartment next door. Then in the evening, he returned with a hacksaw and cut up her body. He said, "I removed her limbs and head. Wrapped them in several black trash bags separately and discarded them in the Mercer Law School dumpster." He said he put Lauren's torso into the apartment trashcan on June 28th, two days before it was found. He went on to say, "It's difficult for me to explain why I killed Lauren, and attempted to conceal my deed the way I did." He grieves Giddings daily, but doesn't expect forgiveness from her family. He said, "If I could take it back, I would."

Not a day goes by that I don't think about her, my family doesn't think about her. When I think of her now it's more about Lauren and less about her murder. It's, you know, good memories. So, we do all sorts of things to keep Lauren's memory alive. There's a bench in Macon that is in the city park. It's pink and really pretty, and that's an honor for. Also we've had a softball tournament and 5K's in her name. My favorite one is my daughter, Lauren Magnolia, who's obviously named after my sister. And at this point, Lauren would have seven nieces and nephews. We know she would think we were ridiculous for having so many kids so fast, I know that for sure.
